

A 12 year girl single handily brought the Rochester Middle School on lock down earlier this week. The girl became unruly Monday morning and as a result, the school was put on lockdown during her arrest.

The girl became violent at Kellogg Middle School. Police say the girl assaulted a school staff member.

The student was taken to a Juvenile Detention Center where she is facing charges of 4th and 5th degree assault and terroristic threats.