

4 Want Monroe County Job

Wednesday, 20 November 2013 16:51

A new Monroe County DA could be hired by the end of the year. That according to Governor Walker and the Department of Justice. 4 applicants will now be interviewed, with the final two talking to Walker himself. The wanna be District Attorney candidates are Brown County Assistant D.A. Thomas Coaty, Monroe County Assistant D.A. Kevin Croninger, Vernon County Assistant D.A. Stacy Smith and Tomah Attorney Aaron Lueck. They are all vying for the spot held by Dan Cary, Monroe County's D.A. since 2002. He died unexpectedly November 4th at his home.
