

The flu has been quiet on this side of the state so far this year....not the case in other parts though. A few more reported cases over the weekend. A good time to make sure young and older folks are ready for the flu season says Mayo's Heidi Hackbarth.

\(Click for Audio\)

Hackbarth says there is some concern on how early the flu has shown up in the state this year.