

The La Crosse School District Board of Education will be holding an informational meeting tonight regarding the upcoming election and positions on the School Board.

People interested in serving children and the community as a member of the Board of Education are encouraged to attend the meeting which is set for tonight from 5:00 to 5:45 p.m. in the Hogan Administrative Center.

If your planning to attend the workshop, contact the Superintendent's Office.