

Democrat Kathleen Vinehout was hurt Sunday morning following a crash in snowy weather in the Racine area where she was originally scheduled to hold meet and greet events with supporters.

There were multiple wrecks in Racine County Sunday and at this point, it is unclear exactly which traffic incident in Racine Vinehout was involved in.

According to her husband, the Alma Senator may have surgery today in Eau Claire to repair several fractures she received in her right arm.