

Residents of the Hillview Assisted Living Facility got a little holiday cheer this morning.

\(Click for Audio\)

The brass ensemble from Longfellow Elementary performed some Christmas music for residents and care manager, Jill Monroe says it's a common thing this time of the year.

\(Click for Audio\)

She says residents like the performances and it helps some without family, get through the holidays.