

A plan to buy land on the Lakeview farm site at West Salem has received the okay of a county committee... The West Salem school district wants 25 more acres at Lakeview, as it prepares plans for a new school on land it already owns: La Crosse County administrator Steve O'Malley says the land purchase would not affect operations at the Lakeview Care Center, which could be replaced in a few years.