

A huge change to Onalaska's new garbage system starting January 6th. City

Engineer Jarrod Holter says a city council vote of 5-1 last week will now allow residents to choose what size garbage kart they want. The only no vote came at the discussion of price.

\(Click for Audio\)

Holter says after 12 thousand karts were delivered two weeks, folks there now have until April 2nd to decide on different sizes or keep the new ones they have now.