

Buy a fake Christmas Tree at Menard's this year? Might want to check it.

Menards

is recalling about 1800 pre lit, artificial Christmas trees sold exclusively in its stores. The recall is for the seven and a half foot tall Twinkling Pine sold under the Enchanted Forest brand. Lights were overheating, melting or smoking but no injuries have occurred. If you bought one, unplug the tree immediately and return it for a full refund.