

I don't want to go back to prison. Words uttered by a Sparta man who thought he could out run police. 36 year old Jefferey Denton of Sparta just might get back to prison now.

Last weekend, a Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy asked for help with a traffic stop near the Spartan Motel. The officer learned that Denton was stopped by the Deputy and made a comment similar to I don't want to go back to prison. As the officers re-approached the vehicle Denton got out and took off through a field behind the motel.

Officers were able to chase Denton down. He's now in the county jail. No word on more prison time yet.
