

Coats To Kids This Morning

Thursday, 19 December 2013 11:00

It's gonna be a warmer winter for about 120 kids in La Crosse. All thanks to the La Crosse Firefighters IAFF Local 127. Lance Tryggestad, President of the local union says they had some help this morning with the coats.

\(Click for Audio\)

It's part of the Operation Warm program which provides new, USA-made winter coats to Fire Fighters Associations to distribute to children in need.