

State Senator, Kathleen Vinehout is healing. A surgical team spent 8 hours putting her shattered arm bones back together with plates and pins last week. This after the Alma democrat was involved in a multi car accident near Racine December 8th. Vinehout says if she runs for governor next year, she won't run a campaign using her injury to gain votes.

\(Click for Audio\)

Vinehout was hurt following a crash in snowy weather in the Racine area where she was originally scheduled to hold meet and greet events with supporters.