

Decorah Restaurant Damaged By Early Morning Fire

Thursday, 09 January 2014 10:53

---

It took Decorah, Iowa fire fighters about 4 hours to put out an early morning restaurant fire there early Wednesday.

The fire started at about 1:30 a.m. at the Cho Sun Restaurant. Firefighters found flames coming from the west side of the building and were able to stop the fire from spreading through the entire building, however it did suffer smoke damage.

No one was injured. An investigation into the cause of the fire is ongoing.