

For months, Keith Butler was kept in the dark. The La Crosse county emergency management coordinator was never part of the discussions in La Crosse city hall regarding a multi-million dollar emergency radio system upgrade. A different situation now, apparently

\(Click for Audio\)

The city is close to soliciting bids for its radio upgrade with the project to start next year. The county plans something similar in the next couple of years after that