

Spring Grove 7th grader Alex Folz is still basking in his mini celebrity appearance from last Sunday's AFC playoff football game. He was the winner of the 12-13 year old NFL punt, pass and kick contest and was introduced to the crowd at halftime. Quite the road Alex had to travel.

Folz was then told he made the top 4 and had to compete one last time in Minnesota. After winning that, he flew with his dad to Denver where he won the final leg. Best he ever finished in the past.....outside the top 4.
