

Senator Jennifer Shilling talked with us in response to Governor Scott

Walker's 2014 State of the State address given last night.

\(Click for Audio\)

Shilling says the focus should be on supporting middle class families, prioritizing investments in small business development, improving access to affordable health care, and restoring the funding that was cut from our local community schools.