

A change in campus policy may be one reason that drug use at UW-L has not skyrocketed during Oktoberfest. That according to Wellness Coordinator, Jason Bertrand.

\(Click for Audio\)

In 2012, following a squirrel throwing incident, a change was made to all residence halls. For the past 2 years, they have been locked from noon Friday to noon Sunday during fest, leaving only students living in those halls to have access.