

A lack of money from the state can be one reason that the American Lung Association gave Wisconsin an F on quitting smoking programs on a recent report card. Judy Zabel is a health educator with the La Crosse County Health Department. She gave one example.

\(Click for Audio\)

As for the rest of the grades.....Wisconsin gets an A for smoke free air and a B for cigarette taxes but an F for tobacco prevention and control program funding.