

Woman Dead After La Crosse Shooting

Monday, 30 August 2010 06:42

---

A teenage woman is dead after a shooting in La Crosse last night. The shooting happened in the 3700 block of Elm Street. They say that shooting is related to a drive by shooting about a half hour earlier. that shooting happened in the 700 block of Ferry street, not far from downtown. No one was hurt in the first shooting. But the second shooting claimed the life of this woman they have described only as a 19 year old. They have not released any names. There is no word of any arrests in the case yet, but La Crosse police continue to investigate.