

Still confused about where to put your garbage can? From those who have automated garbage service in La Crosse, we've heard questions about where to put those cans for pick-up. Pretty easy, says Gary Harter from Harter's, the city's garbage contractor. Just pay attention to where the garbage guys leave them after getting dumped

\(Click for Audio\)

La Crosse's new garbage service is officially underway this week, though Harter estimates as many as 75% of city households have been using their new wheeled carts since they were delivered.