

By a 68-32 vote Tuesday, the nation now has a new, five year farm bill.

Minnesota U.S. Senator Al Franken had several energy ideas passed within the bill.

\(Click for Audio\)

President Obama is expected to sign the five year package of farm programs and food aid that received final congressional approval yesterday.