

Their not the governor and his wife....but when State Superintendent Tony

Evers and Western Technical College System President Morna Foy stop by one of your schools, it must mean something good is happening in the district. And that's exactly what happened Wednesday says Annette O'Hern, the district's Career and Technical Education Coordinator.

\(Click for Audio\)

Students that attend the the Health Science Academy also spend quite a bit of time at Gundersen Health System, Mayo Clinic Health System and the city's three colleges.