

U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin made stops at Organic Valley and Westby

Cooperative Creamery Monday, Dan Deicher talked with the Wisconsin lawmaker about the trip.

\(Click for Audio\)

Baldwin was in the area touting the new farm bill that she favored and voted for. She talked with us about the stop in Westby.

\(Click for Audio\)

Baldwin says the new farm bill will greatly benefit Wisconsin's organic and dairy industries. Especially for companies like those in Cashton and Westby.