

State School Superintendent , Tony Evers is telling state lawmakers the recommendations that will come out of a newly created Model Academic Standards Board will not be Common Core State Standards and are wrong.

\(Click for Audio\)

Many Legislators want education standards to be reviewed every six years, and have proposed a 15 member committee to guide educational standards. The Assembly Committee on Education is scheduled to vote on the proposal today.