

Sunday liquor sales could come to the forefront of the upcoming legislative session in Minnesota.

\(Click for Audio\)

Winona Senator Jeremy Miller says it would remove what he calls an unnecessary intrusion into the private sector. He says the growth of tap rooms has helped the issue gain momentum.