

Bad timing for a Gleason Wisconsin man who just wanted his stuff back.

27 year old year old Dustin Grant contacted Sparta Police in an effort to get back some personal property of his that had been confiscated during a 2013 arrest. Grant showed up at the P.D. and when the property officer verified his id she found out that the Department of Corrections had just issued a warrant for his arrest.

Grant was arrested and taken to the Monroe County Jail.