

Dragon boat racing is the fastest growing water sport in the world and that was evident last year in La Crosse. Mayo Clinic Health System only expected between 12-15 teams. They got 30. And the races are back again this year.

\(Click for Audio\)

That's Co-Chair, Lori Freit-Hammes. Proceeds from the event July 5th support the Center for Breast Care at Mayo Clinic Health System in La Crosse, benefiting women across the region. Registration started last week.