

As the local and state investigation continues in Tomah mayoral candidate,

Leroy Kelsey and his run for the position as a convicted felon, people that work in the election field in the state are some what interested in the case. It's a case that Reid Magney with the Government Accountability Board has only heard about.

\(Click for Audio\)

Magney says his office has consulted with the Tomah City Clerk on the matter though the investigation is being done by the Department of Justice and the Monroe County DA.