

The current West Salem Middle School could become the new home of a boys and girls club. Though that hinges on a district building referendum passing April 1st. Boys and Girls Club Director, Mike Desmond says they can't do it alone though.

\(Click for Audio\)

Desmond says the club would need to update and reconfigure the heating system and reconfigure some of the building exits and classrooms for their own purposes. A new school would be built if the referendum passes.