

Feels like spring out there today for many. Not so much for the workers at Brennan Marine in La Crosse, who aren't even close to being able to break ice and start shipping on the river. There's just too much of it

\(Click for Audio\)

Kent Pehler is with Brennan. Been in the shipping business 34 years. Says he's never seen a season start off this way.