

Federal officials say they've broken up one of the nation's largest online child exploitation networks, with victims in Wisconsin, 38 other states, and 6 countries. Not a big shocker to Crystal Sedevie with the Coulee Region Children's Internet Protection Task Force.

\(Click for Audio\)

Immigration spokesman Shawn Neudauer in Minneapolis said one of the 14 arrests was made in the Gopher State. Neudauer said there were 12 victims each from Wisconsin, Minnesota and North Dakota, 6 in Iowa, and 2 in South Dakota.