

In Madison today, a delivery of a petition signed by thousands of state residents calling for a veto of Senate Bill 324, the early voting restriction legislation, will hit Governor Scott Walker's office. Mike Brown with the One Wisconsin Institute says the people have spoken.

\(Click for Audio\)

A Milwaukee event today will feature speakers discussing the disparate impact of early voting restrictions on voters in Southeastern Wisconsin --especially seniors, minorities and persons with disabilities.