

Winona State Senator, Jeremy Miller is reminding state residents about the deadline coming to sign up for MnSure, the state's health care exchange. But don't expect Miller's reminders to come with a smile.

\(Click for Audio\)

Aiming to give Minnesotans every possible chance to buy health insurance before the March 31st deadline, MNsure leaders said they will grant some flexibility to those making a good faith effort to buy coverage when the clock strikes midnight that night.