

Early Primary Votes From La Crosse County

Tuesday, 14 September 2010 20:59

Who did La Crosse County voters like on Tuesday's primary ballot?

In the governor's race, they preferred Mark Neumann over Scott Walker on the Republican side. For lieutenant governor, Brett Davis was the clear choice among five Republican hopefuls...with Tom Nelson prevailing on the Democratic side. Nick Charles edged out Julian Bradley in the GOP race to find a challenger to State Rep Jennifer Shilling. And Dan Kapanke got 80 per cent of the Republican vote in his home county, in the primary for Congress in the 3rd District.
