

The Whitehall Police headquarters will be moving soon.....inside the Whitehall High School. Superintendent, Mike Beighley explained to use how that will work.

\(Click for Audio\)

A new building that will replace a part of the City Hall, built in 1919 will have room for the police evidence storage and the interview room. Moving the office to the high school will save the city close to half of a million dollars in construction costs.