

Suspects Sought in Wallet Heist

Monday, 14 April 2014 12:36

La Crosse police are searching for suspects in a reported strong arm robbery over the weekend. Cops say a victim lost his wallet to three guys who approached him and a friend in the area of West avenue and Pine street and talked about buying drugs. The victim says one of the perps just reached inside his shorts, picked his wallet and ran away. The guy's out a hundred bucks but he did get the rest of his wallet back. Neither the victim or his friend were injured.
