

Was the student voter turnout last week for three referendum items at UW-L

the highest ever?

\(Click for Audio\)

Student Devin Remiker says that the main turnout was for the Responsible Action Policy at UW-L. The policy will protect students from being charged for underage drinking if they call campus police for help when they or another student are dangerously intoxicated. Approval was also given to an $8 million expansion of the Eagle Rec Center.