Interviews for four people vying to fill a vacant La Crosse county board seat are set for Tuesday. The county board will interview the four for the seat left by Andrew Londre just days after winning re-election this month. Jerome Gundersen Jr., Audrey Kader, Nancy Caucutt and Chris Rochester are seeking to represent district 9 on the county board, likely for the next two years. The board plans to make a decision on the seat next week largely on the basis tomorrow's 20 minute interviews.
