

La Crosse is the scene for the 6th annual Festival Foods Grandad Half Marathon this weekend. So far more than 1300 runners have signed up though there's much more than that taking place. With all of the events going on from tonight to tomorrow, Event coordinator Becca Schaar said they could still use your help.

Registration is available from 4:30 to 8 p.m. tonight and 5:30 to 9 a.m. tomorrow morning at the Health & Fitness Expo at the Radisson Center in downtown La Crosse. However, registration for the half-marathon and half-marathon relay will be available today only. Registration for other events will close 30 minutes before their respective start times. The event also features running and cycling events suitable for people of all fitness levels.
