The Republican Party of Wisconsin is proud to announce the endorsement of Julian Bradley for Secretary of State following a vote at its 2014 State Convention. The candidate endorsement was supported by more than 65 percent of Republican delegates following speeches from three candidates vying for the office. "Today, Republican delegates cast a vote of confidence for Julian Bradley as he runs for Secretary of State," said Brad Courtney, Chairman of the Republican Party of Wisconsin. "As we look toward a victorious Election Day for Republicans, we believe our endorsed candidate will serve as the right choice for voters this November 4th."
