

A shot across the bow perhaps for the other drug houses in La Crosse. The rental shut down on Friday as a public nuisance on the southside of La Crosse could be one of many to come in the city. And the next ones could come faster

\(Click for Audio\)

La Crosse mayor Tim Kabat. The duplex on south 24th street had established a long record of drug-related offenses before a judge Friday ordered the house shuttered.