

Rental Registry Rules Suspended for Two La Crosse Landlords

Tuesday, 03 June 2014 11:38

Although nothing has been settled in a legal action against La Crosse's new rental regulations, enforcement is on a hiatus for now for a couple of landlords. Those are the two that are suing the city over the new rental rules, saying they violate state law. Their attorney, Bernardo Cueto would not comment pending a judge's decision. But he did tell us several days ago that he expects that decision to be a relatively easy one
