

A huge step forward for a key piece of property in the middle of La Crosse. That's what backers of a new TIF district are hoping for. The special taxing district will include the 12 acre chunk of land where the former Trane plant 6 stood. And could turn into something really special someday, says Jim Hill with LADCO, one of the owners of the property

\(Click for Audio\)

A key city council committee votes tonight on whether to create the TIF district. It would encompass not just the Trane Plant 6 site but also homes, businesses and industrial property in the area.