

At the worst, a malicious attack by a police chief on a private citizen. You'll hear that on French Island about police chief Tim Kelemen, under fire for some online harrassment of a local Tea Partier using his home and department computer. Some, like this woman, aren't ready to believe the worst. But still question the chief's judgement

\(Click for Audio\)

That woman thinks chief Kelemen should lose his job. Campbell town board members could address the issue in a closed session at a regular meeting tonight.