

Hundreds of people in the La Crosse area are eager to share their favorite things with the rest of us.

Those are the people who have submitted nominations so far in the 'best of La Crosse County' survey, run by the Convention and Visitor Bureau. Besides tourism attractions, plenty of businesses are getting nominations, according to CVB boss Dave Clements:

\(Click for Audio\)

Once the nominees have been decided, final voting will happen in July and August. Rules can be found at www-dot-explorelacrosse-dot-com, slash-best of.