

Vernon County Man Busted In Pot Grow

Monday, 30 June 2014 13:04

A Viroqua man has been busted for growing marijuana. 43 year old Brent Felde was arrested on Saturday.

On June 28th, a Vernon County Deputy was attempting to serve a warrant on Felde at his house on Call Road, in the Town of Sterling. While attempting to serve the warrant a marijuana growing operation was found. A search warrant was obtained and approximately 29 pot plants were found planted in pots in the shed at the house. Felde faces charges of Manufacturing and Possession of Marijuana.

This matter is still under Investigation by the Vernon County Sheriff's Office
