

Recently registered to vote? Are you sure? New rules regarding voter registration in Wisconsin mean new forms. But nothing ever goes simply when you're dealing with voter registration it seems

\(Click for Audio\)

The Government Accountability Board's Reid Magney says private groups that do voter registration, especially, may be circulating old forms that don't have a space for providing proof of residence. He says election clerks have complained about the confusion. He recommends starting the voter registration process at the state website, myvote.wi.gov