Among the many, many drunk drivers arrested by La Crosse police this weekend is the guy that mowed down a row of motorcycles with his truck. Cops say 28 year-old Micheal Wilson, from Galesville, swerved off of the road on Rose street at one in the morning on the fourth, clipped a light pole and ran into a bunch of motorcycles parked at the Best Western. They say he blew a .19 at the scene and collected his third OWI.
