

A court appearance is set this afternoon in La Crosse for the son of an Iowa couple found dead in the family's home...

The bodies of Jonathan Neunaber's (NEW-naber's) parents, Donald and Esther, were found at their home near Akron, Iowa on Wednesday. Police say the couple died violently, but they do not consider Jonathan a suspect. Jonathan was arrested during a traffic stop in La Crosse last night, after Iowa police announced they were searching for him. Investigators think he may know something about how his parents died.
