

Habitat for Humanity La Crosse Area has purchased a new building, located at 3181 Berlin Drive in La Crosse.

\(Click for Audio\)

Executive Director, Amanda Acklin says the building is situated within the La Crosse International Business Park, and neighbors the Solid Waste Department and Stansfield Vending. The new building will house the Habitat ReStore, selling a variety of donated household items and building materials to the public at discount prices, along with the main offices for the Habitat for Humanity Affiliate.